English Press Release

The seventh release of Electrophil Records comes from a producer of our neighbor country: Austria. EPR007 "Side Show" is the first release under his new alter ego. In 2005 he had some hardtechno releases on vinyl under the Name Mike Deal. And now, after a little break and with new ambitions, he is starting again under his novel moniker: Dealirium.

This release consists of four original tracks and one remix. Ranging from a more melodic and slightly progressive approach in Ninja over the deeper and hypnotic beats of Dundee to the powerful grooves of Bubbletea, every original track has its own distinct spirit and shows Dealirium's passion for detail in music production. Remixer for this EP is no one else than Thom Nagy, arranging a deep ambient version of Dealirium's Ninja. But have a listen yourself to those amazing tracks!
