English Press Release

With EPR009 we once more cordially welcome a producer from our neighbor country, Austria. With the EP “Say What?” Plo.berger sees his first release. It started early-on for Plo.berger when he decided to learn how to play the saxophone. Since then making music has always been an essential part of his life. The saxophone was not enough and thus electric bass, guitar and keyboard came along. After some years he discovered his love for Tech House and Techno and got into producing his own tracks. His tracks are mostly Tech House with driving basslines, grooving percussion and lots of swing which will keep your feet moving.

Inside this Release you will find three original tracks from Plo.berger. Additionally there is a remix by Weltenwandler with a strong, driving bassline as well as the remix by Francesco Ballato which meanders in the deeper parts of electronic dance music.
